Rare Breeds of the Year Show Rules

1. No Horse or Pony (other than Foals accompanying their dams) not having been entered for exhibition in the Show will be allowed on to the showground. Proof of entry may be required, by showing the appropriate number of exhibits.
2. The term "Nomination" cannot be accepted in any class.
3. "In-Hand" means with bridle or halter. Equines must be shown as decreed by their respective Breed Societies.
4. Animals that behave in an uncontrolled or hazardous manner in the opinion of a Judge or Show Official will be required to leave the ring.
5. All exhibitors must comply with any movement license or transport legislation at the time of the Show.
6. Competitors must wear the correct number for each entry or they may be disqualified by default and/or forfeit any prize money due.
7. All those entering the rings with equines, or to attend equines, must be suitably dressed, I.e. including hats and jackets in mounted classes. Anyone riding an equine anywhere on the showground is required to wear a properly fastened hat of a standard approved by the governing body under whose rules they are exhibiting.
8. Exhibitors must be ready to enter the ring ten minutes before the time of judging. This is most essential as classes will not be held up.
9. Exhibitors who are likely to have equines in more than one ring at the same time should provide additional riders and/or handlers as classes will not be delayed.
10. The RBHS Organising Committee has taken reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Officials and Stewards.
11. In the event of change being made after the schedules have been printed (i.e. timing of classes or judge) every effort will be made to inform exhibitors. However it is the exhibitor's responsibility to ensure they know the correct time to arrive for competing.
12. The RBHS Organising Committee reserves the right to prevent access to or evict from the showground any Exhibitor, handler or Breed Society member, irrespective of the fact they may have entered Horses or Ponies in any class. Under these circumstances any entry fees or other fees would be refunded.
13. Exhibitors must pay the relevant fee at the time of entry.
14. Any Exhibitor or other person deceiving or attempting to deceive the RBHS Organising Committee by entering animals in the wrong classes, ownership or name, contrary to these Rules and Regulations will forfeit the whole of their entrance fees, and also any prize or prizes won by him/her at the Show. The responsibility for the correctness of all entries rests with the owner or his/her agent.
15. Should an exhibitor withdraw an exhibit after the closing date of entries they will not be entitled to refund of entry fees unless supported by a relevant veterinary certificate.
16. The RBHS Organising Committee reserves the right at any time to reject or cancel the entry or entries made by any person if the committee shall deem it fit to do so and reserve the right to cancel any class or classes, refunding any fees paid at their sole discretion.

17. Numbers for all exhibits will be supplied by the RBHS Organising Committee and must be properly attached to each exhibit.

18. These RBHS Organising Committee rules take precedent over individual Breed Society rules.

19. The Shows Veterinary Surgeon may be called to verify the height of any animal and his/her decision shall be final.

20. The Show will not be responsible for any error which may appear in the catalogue or any entry made in the wrong class but every care will be taken to ensure accuracy.

21. The RBHS Organising Committee reserves the right to refuse admission to the Showground or to evict any Exhibitor from the Showground.

22. Any Exhibitor wishing to make a protest must make the same in writing to the relevant Breed Society Secretary whose rules will be followed.

The welfare of the equine is paramount.

Every Breed Society is represented on the Organising Committee.
